

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RACE POWER AND TECHNOLOGY PROJECT

BECOME AN UNDERGRADUATE COLLABORATOR (UC)
FOR THE 2020-2021 SCHOOL YEAR!

The TREE Lab is looking for undergraduate students who are interested in joining the lab to collaborate on the Young People's Race Power and Technology Project (YPRPT), an afterschool program for high school students co-designed with Evanston and Chicago community-based organizations. Undergraduate Collaborators (UCs) will assist in the development of programming alongside faculty and graduate students & co-develop documentary films with high school students that explore how new technologies shape the experiences of communities of color.

Please click here for more details about the role.

Applications should be submitted by 9.27.20 through this form.